

Jim Cogan Biography

Jim Cogan lives in Heritage Ranch with his wife and two sons. Jim grew up in New Hampshire and moved to California in 1999. The Cogans moved to Paso Robles so that Jim could work for the City of Paso Robles. He has over 20 years of experience working with local government in the public and private sector. He is currently working in agricultural technology. He is an elder at Highlands church and serves on the Boards of the Chamber of Commerce and Paso Robles Recreation Foundation. He has coached youth football and is currently the Chair of the City of Paso Robles Supplemental Sales Tax Oversight Committee. Jim volunteers on the Heritage Ranch BMX/Skate Park Focus Group and enjoys working on cars, hiking, mountain biking, 4-wheeling, and weightlifting with his sons.